HOW COLD WAVE CAME INTO TOWN ON 60-MILE WIND.

Perfectly good winter weather arrived to-day, a week ahead of schedule time. The cold wave came out of the Northwest and sent the mercury down like a fat boy falling out of a tree.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was at 19, with the sun shining brightly, but as the sun went farther west the all-very liquid began to slide down to the low numbers again. The lowest temperature registered to-day was 9. If the weather man knows his business it will not be so cold to-night, and to-morrow will be comfortable. The gale, which came on last night at the rate of sixty miles an hour, continued forcible through the day. A white Christmas ap-pears to be assured, as the cold wave is believed to be a fore-
